

CV – Lars Green Lauridsen

Year of birth

1961

Education

Master of Surveying and Cadastral Science, Aalborg University

Professional experience

- 1988                    Research student, Ardhi Institute, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
- 1989-1991            TBM (Tunnel Boring Machine) surveyor at Great Belt link, MT Group
- 1991-1993            Lecturer in Geodesy, Surveying and Mathematics, University of Zambia
- 1993-1994            Consultant, Scankort
Consultant in land administration in St Petersburg, Russia
- 1994-1998            International Sales and Project Manager, Kampsax
Sales and project management within land administration and EUs area based subsidy system, involving management of teams and projects primarily in Eastern Europe during the transition years. Responsible for solid growth and substantial turnover in the project portfolio. Responsible for feasibility study and preparation of Kampsax' production facility in India (now COWI India).
- 1998-1999            International Sales and Project Manager, BlomInfo
- 2000-2000            Bid Manager, J.H. Schultz Holding A/S
- 2001-2004            International Business Manager, BlomInfo
Head of the international activities of the Norwegian Blom Group within land administration and mapping. Responsible for building up these activities in Europe from nil to a considerable profitable business. Responsible for start-up and overall management of the subsidiary production company for distributed work in Romania and developing it from scratch to 150 employees.
- 2004-2007            Chief of Division, Danish Enterprise and Construction Agency Responsible for a number of land-related registers governed by law. Responsible for passing several bills through the Danish Parliament. Staff management of 15 employees and contractor management. The registers were outsourced to the private sector.

2007-present

COWI A/S

Since 2007, Lars Green Lauridsen has held various positions within COWI:

- > Vice President for the department of GIS and IT (2007-2008)
- > Senior Vice President of Geographical Information and IT (2008-2012)
- > Senior Vice President of Planning and Economics (2012-present)
- > Member of the Board of Directors of COWI India Limited (2008-present)
- > Member of the Board of Directors of COWI Mapping UK (2008-present)
- > Member of the cooperation board between employee associations and the management of COWI A/S and responsible for salary negotiations in COWI A/S with the employee associations.

Relevant competencies through fields of experience:

- > Strategy and strategy implementation
- > Financial management
- > International business development and project management (from Europe, Asia and Africa)
- > Experience with international finance institutions
- > Public-sector understanding
- > Balancing company interests and employee positions
- > Outsourcing and distributed work.

Relevant competencies according to the competence profile for the Board of Directors of COWI Holding A/S:

- > Senior management experience from other global or Nordic consultancy companies
- > Financial and risk management experience from global companies
- > Customer relation management
- > People management in knowledge based companies
- > Operational excellence in service companies
- > M&A or alliance experience
- > Business development.